Then sadness fell upon West-minister; Minna left and Sebastian was a spinster. She went to Hartt but while apart she dreamed a dream she schemed a scheme. The fellowship plan was hatched. Thus Minna comes back to the West End; She builds a nest with Sebastian. With grace and aplomb and sometimes a gun she hires new fellows, brainstorms seminars and saves a cat. Three hats now Minna wears at one time: teacher, performer, fellowship director. Model dissemination, registration, imp creation, music making. Minna rocks at them all.
